

Symptoms Checklist	Possible Vision Problem
<input type="checkbox"/> Doesn't like to read. Doesn't read for pleasure.	Visual acuity, visual function, visual stress (glare, crowding), amblyopia (faulty brain processing).
<input type="checkbox"/> Blurred vision. Rubs eyes. Squints. Holds things very close.	Nearsightedness, farsightedness, astigmatism. Inability to maintain focus.
<input type="checkbox"/> Skips words, lines. Loses place. Uses finger.	Eye tracking problem, Immature saccade control.
<input type="checkbox"/> Covers one eye. May sometimes see double. Ask!	Eye coordination/binocular vision problems. Strabismus, diplopia.
<input type="checkbox"/> Sensitivity to light. Headaches, including migraines.	Any of the above, unusual susceptibility to visual stress.
<input type="checkbox"/> Left-right confusion. Reverses letters and words. May see words reversed.	Delayed development of mirror invariance, amblyopia.
<input type="checkbox"/> Difficulty remembering words/math symbols and facts.	Faulty visual imaging.
<input type="checkbox"/> Reads/does math without comprehension or understanding concepts.	Faulty visual memory.
<input type="checkbox"/> Poor handwriting. Can respond better orally than in writing.	Faulty visual-motor integration.
<input type="checkbox"/> Clumsy. Doesn't do/enjoy sports.	Any of the above.